

Phillip Island Movie Club

Our June Film was Casablanca and was rated (in our Starbox voting system) as a 4.8 out of 5 by the 62 members who voted.

This month's film on Wednesday 26th of July 2017 is Rosalie Blum, a French film by Julien Rappeneau and it was released in December 2016, it is rated M and runs for 96 minutes.

The story is about Vincent Machot a hairdresser whose uneventful life revolves around work, his overbearing mother and a womanising cousin who is constantly trying to set him up with dates. One morning Vincent experiences a powerful deja-vu when he meets the gaze of a grocery store clerk, Rosalie Blum. Intrigued by this mysterious woman, he begins a search to uncover the truth behind their connection....

Rosalie Blum is a whimsical, quirky French comedy about three misfits who bring out the best in each other. The film is in three parts with differing perspectives and emotions from three people whose lives have stalled. Indeed with its themes of fraternity, love and the value of compassion, Rosalie Blum delivers a timely reminder of the best that French cinema has to offer. The film is poignant and full of surprises.

The raffle this month is a selection of goodies and is donated by IGA Cowes.

We are sadly losing one of our committee members, as Sam Ward and her family are moving back to England together. Sam has been with the film club for eight years and she will be sorely missed by all of us. Sam has always brought a happy disposition and plenty of energy and ideas to our club. Thank you Sam for all you have done and for your willingness to help out wherever you could. The July film will be Sam's last night with us. We wish you all the best on your return home and we are sure that your family and friends in England are all very excited about your home coming.

Entrance is by membership only and membership is closed for 2017. A waiting list has been established for 2018 and these people will be sent membership forms in November 2017.

Any queries for the July film can be made on phillipislandmovieclub@gmail.com

As usual, we look forward to seeing you there.